Nautilus Beach Apartments are set in scenic Carlisle Bay. Nautilus is also nestled near Historic Bridgetown and its Garrison, which is home to the Barbados Museum and George Washington House. The apartments are close to all ranges of entertainment, with numerous dining establishments nearby.

The tranquil surroundings are ideal for families, and you can relax in a comfortable environment, away from the hustle and bustle of the rest of the island.

In easy walking distance there is a wide variety of water sporting activities available in Carlisle Bay, including scuba diving and snorkelling. These self-contained apartments consist of 11 one-bedroom units, two studios and two superior units, which offer all the comforts of a home away from home.
