

Yellow Bird Hotel Wins Two BHTA Awards

St. Lawrence Gap, Christ Church, Barbados, (October 27, 2018). For Immediate Release:

Yellow Bird Hotel has been selected as the BHTA's winner of the Hotel of the Year in the B Class & Apartment Category for 2018. This intimate, boutique hotel also won the 2018 BHTA award for Social Responsibility.

The Barbados Hotel and Tourism Association is one of the largest non-governmental associations in Barbados. With a diverse membership of over 300 tourism and non-tourism entities, they represent over 80% of the total accommodation room stock of the island as well as over 60% consisting of non-accommodation entities, including activities and attractions, airlines, restaurants, real estate agents, tour representatives, retailers, advertising and public relations agencies and suppliers of goods and services.

The BHTA Awards Gala is hosted biennially by the BHTA Chairman, at the end of their two year term of office. This award program is open for any person or entity that, due to operational practices, achievement or success, or personal initiative of achievement, is worthy of recognition by industry peers.

Geeta Chatrani, General Manager of the Yellow Bird said, "My team and I are honoured to be the BHTA's 2018 recipient of two awards. Our mission is to ensure that all of our guests have a wonderful experience while staying with us and we do our best to ensure that when they return home, they do so with wonderful memories of a great vacation. We often receive excellent reviews from our guests and winning the Hotel of the Year award in our category is the icing on the cake." She added, "We try to play our part to help our community starting with our very own team as well as the St. Lawrence School located steps away from our hotel. We are extremely grateful to have been the recipient of the Social Responsibility Award."

About Yellow Bird

Yellow Bird is a 22-room boutique hotel situated at the start of St. Lawrence Gap in Christ Church, Barbados. The property underwent a US $1.25 million refurbishment during the summer of 2015 which included a total facelift to all guest rooms and public areas. In June 2018 the bar and restaurant received a complete makeover.
